

Full Scholarship for Health Innovation Research Program Graduate School of Health Innovation, Kanagawa University of Human Services, Japan (Master's Course)

Venue: at Kanagawa University of Human Services, Japan

Program: Health Innovation Program, Graduate School of Health Innovation, Master's Course

Scholarship: Financial support for at least 2 international students. The support will cover living expenses including housing, along with tuition exemption. Two full scholarships will be provided by Kanagawa University.

Qualification:

- Mahidol Students Those who have graduated or are expected to graduate from university by March 31, 2019.
- Proficiency in English communication
- Have broaden technical & scientific knowledge
- Be responsible & adaptability

Application procedure:

Documents required for application Access the Graduate School of Health Innovation website, download the documents required for application, fill them out by referring to “4.2. Method of application,” and submit them. (The Course website: <https://www.shi.kuhs.ac.jp/admissions>)

Accepting number of participants: 2 students

Application period:

December 25, 2018 (Tues.) – January 25, 2019 (Fri.)

Important Date:

January 20th, 2019 : Deadline to submit the applicant documents at International Affairs Office, 4th floor of Building 1

January 22th 2019: Announcement of the name list for interview test

January 23rd 2019: Interview and announcement of the pass interview test

January 25th 2019: Deadline to submit the applicant documents to Kanagawa University

For any further information, please download the documents or contact Ms. Winutda via e-mail (an.winutda@gmail.com) Tel: 0898625523

Download for Guideline of Applicants for more information and Application Forms