

Outcome-based research for policy decision

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will provide concepts of outcome-based research, outcome measures by world-class speakers who invented the world-wide software to estimate quality-adjusted survival. All participants will be able to access the tools to practice as example data. The invited resource person for this program is the expert who has worked for research and policymaking. The experts' work is visible in the work of public health such as smoking cessation and condom use to name few.

---

Who's the Course Suitable for?

This short course is aimed at medical doctors, Statisticians, Epidemiologists, Public Health Profession, Students from public health sciences.

---

5 DAYS COURSE

---

*$1000 per person
with minimum of 6
participants*

---