

Planning of Primary Health Care and Health Promotion in Thailand

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The two-day program is designed for the students and public health experts staff to learn about the health promotion and experiences of working for the development of the health system from Thailand experience. It will give a comprehensive idea to the participants regarding the learning phase of health care and the establishment of health care in Thailand. It also shows different measures applied by the health care centre in the health promotion activity to motivate community for healthy living. The program also has a half-day visit to Bangkok Metropolitan Authority Health Promotion Center.

---

Who's the Course Suitable for?

This short course is aimed at students and Junior staff.

---

2 DAYS COURSE

---

*$350 per person
with minimum of 20
participants*

---