

Improvement of Urban Service Delivery: Solid Waste Management and Resource management

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This program is designed for participants who are working on environmental waste management and water allocation. This program will have lecture and field experience as well. The field visit will be in the Bangkhen Water Treatment Plant to observe the water recycle project.

Who's the Course Suitable for?

This short course is aimed at government officers, students, public health experts, Sanitation engineer, Environmental scientist.

3 DAYS COURSE

$ 500 per person
with minimum of 20
participants

